Designation JA-20260039

Making the Court Documents “Provisional”

Proposal Information

Proposal Question: Shall we make all 49 Court Documents marked “From Ohio” provisional?

Origination Details:

The Michigan Assembly, Unincorporated acquired 49 documents from The Ohio Assembly, Unincorporated and converted them to “Michigan” documents by changing designations and correcting some inconsistencies. Those documents are listed under Current Guidelines on the member website under Jural Assembly.

The Assembly passed the “provisional” proposal on July 7, 2026, which allows the General Assembly to vote on one or more documents, making them available for use while they are still being developed. That proposal was done in anticipation of doing this proposal to make “the Ohio court documents” ready to use.

Describe how this proposal serves and/or protects the people on Michigan:

This proposal moves our documentation development along so we can do mock trials and eventually start operating our courts. Getting our courts up is crucial for getting our Pillars up and making our Land Jurisdiction government operational on Michigan for the people.
